Downing-Street, October 11, 1800.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Pigot, commanding His Majeſty's Troops in the Iſland of Malta.

SIR, Malta, September 6, 1800.

CONceiving that it may be of the utmoſt Conſequence that His Majeſty's Miniſters ſhould be acquainted, as ſoon as poſſible, with the Surrender of the important Fortreſs of La Valette, I have deſired Mr. Paget to diſpatch a Meſſenger to England with a Copy of my Letter to General Sir Ralph Abercromby on the Subject, and the Articles of Capitulation, which are herewith ſent you.

We Yeſterday took Poſſeſſion of ſome of the Works, and our Ships entered the Harbour, and I am in Hopes the Whole will be evacuated by the Enemy to-morrow, except the Iſland of Manuel, where, agreeable to the Capitulation, ſuch are to remain as cannot be immediately ſent to France for want of Ships to take them.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

H. PIGOT, Major-General.

To the Right Honorable Henry Dundas,
&c. &c. &c.

SIR, Malta, September 5, 1800.

I Have great Satisfaction in acquainting you with the Surrender of the Fortreſs of La Valette, with all its Dependencies, after ſuſtaining a Blockade of Two Years. The Capitulation has been ſigned this Day.

I had every Reaſon to ſuppoſe that this moſt formidable Fortreſs was likely ſoon to fall, from the Circumſtance of the Two French Frigates, La Juſtice and La Diane, going out of the Harbour a few Nights ago; One of which, La Diane, by the Vigilance of the blockading Squadron, was ſoon captured, and there are ſtill ſome Hopes that the other may have ſhared the ſame Fate.

Judging of how much Conſequence it may be that you ſhould have the earlieſt Intimation of this important Capture, I have delayed, till another Opportunity, ſending Returns of the Stores, &c. found in the Place, which could not yet be made up.

During the ſhort Time you were here, you muſt have been ſenſible of the great Exertions which Brigadier-General Graham muſt have made with the limited Force he had, previous to my Arrival with a Reinforcement: he has ever ſince continued theſe Exertions; and I conſider that the Surrender of the Place has been accelerated by the Deciſion of his Conduct, in preventing any more Inhabitants from coming out of the Fortreſs a ſhort Time before I came here. He was ſent to negotiate the Terms of Capitulation with General Vaubois, and I am much indebted to him for his Aſſiſtance in that Buſineſs.

I am happy to ſay, that I have experienced every Support from Brigadier-General Moncrieff, and the Officers of the Britiſh and Allied Troops, whoſe Conduct in every Reſpect has been moſt exemplary. The Service of the Engineer Department, under Captain Gordon, has been carried on with great Zeal and Perſeverance.

I think it right to mention to you, that Lieutenant Vivion of the Royal Artillery, the Aſſiſtant Quarter-Maſter-General, has been of conſiderable Service. He was landed here with his Party from the Strombolo Bomb at the Commencement of the Blockade; and for a long Time did Duty with theſe few Men without any other Britiſh or Regular Troops of any Deſcription.

I have great Pleaſure in acknowledging the conſtant and ready Aſſiſtance and Co-operation I have received from Captain Ball of His Majeſty's Ship the Alexander, who has been employed on Shore during the greater Part of the Blockade:—His Name and Services are already well known to His Majeſty's Miniſters; and I am ſure I need not ſay more than that thoſe he has performed here do Credit to his former Character.

I herewith tranſmit you the Terms of the Capitulation.

I have derived great Aſſiſtance from my Aide-de-Camp Captain Dalrymple, who has for ſome Time been doing Duty as Aſſiſtant Adjutant-General.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) H. PIGOT, Major-General.

General Sir R. Abercromby, K. B.
&c. &c. &c.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION between the General of Diviſion Vaubois, Commander in Chief of the Iſlands of Malta and Gozo, and Rear-Admiral Villeneuve, commanding the Marine at Malta, on one Part; and Major-General Pigot, commanding the Troops of His Britannic Majeſty and his Allies, and Captain Martin, commanding the Britiſh Squadron, and that of the Allies, before Malta, on the other Part.

Art. I. The Garriſon of Malta, its Forts and Dependencies, will march out to be embarked and conveyed to Marſeilles, on ſuch Day and Hour as may be appointed, with all the Honors of War: viz. Drums beating, Colours flying, preceded by Two Four-Pounders, with lighted Matches, with their Tumbrels; the Artillery to ſerve them, and Tumbrels for the Infantry.

The Officers of the Marine, as well Civil as Military; the Sailors and all Perſons belonging to that Department, will in the ſame Manner be conducted to Toulon.

Anſwer.—The Garriſon ſhall receive the Honors of War demanded; but as it is impoſſible the Whole ſhould be immediately embarked, the following Arrangements will take Place:

As ſoon as the Capitulation is ſigned, the Forts of Ricazoli and Tignie will be delivered up to the Britiſh Troops; and the Britiſh Ships may enter the Harbour.

The Porte Nationale ſhall be occupied by a Guard, compoſed of French and Engliſh in equal Numbers, until the Veſſels ſhall be ready to receive the firſt Embarkation; when the whole Garriſon ſhall march out with the Honors of War, to the Marino, where they will lay down their Arms. Thoſe who cannot be of the Firſt Embarkation will occupy the Iſland of Fort Manuel, having an armed Guard, to prevent any Thing that may happen towards the Country.—The Garriſon are to be conſidered as Priſoners of War, and are not to ſerve againſt His Britannic Majeſty or his Allies, until exchanged; for which their reſpective Officers will give their Parole of Honor.

All the Artillery, Ammunition, and public Magazines, of whatever Deſcription, ſhall be delivered to Officers appointed to receive them; as well as Inventories and public Papers.

Art. II. The General of Brigade Chauer, Commandant of the Place and Forts; the General of Brigade Dheunezel, commanding the Artillery and the Engineers; the Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, and Land Troops; the Officers, Soldiers, and Crews; and all other Perſons employed in the Marine:

Citizen Pierre Alphonſo Guyn, Commiſſary General of Commercial Affairs for the French Republic in Syria and Paleſtine, accidently now at Malta with his Family; thoſe holding Civil and Military Employments; the Ordonnateurs and Commiſſaries of War and Marine; the Officers of the Civil Adminiſtration; and other Members of the Conſtituted Authority,—ſhall retain their Arms, perſonal Effects, and Property of every Deſcription.

Anſwer.—Granted; with the Exception of the Arms laid down by the Soldiers, agreeable to the Firſt Article: the Non-commiſſioned Officers ſhall be allowed to retain their Swords.

Art. III. All Perſons having carried Arms in the Service of the Republic during the Siege, of whatever Nation, ſhall be conſidered as Part of the Garriſon.

Anſwer.—Granted.

Art. IV. The Diviſion will be embarked at the Expence of His Britannic Majeſty; every Officer, Soldier, or Perſon in public Employment ſhall receive Rations in Proportion to their Rank, according to the French Regulations.

The Officers and Members of the Civil Adminiſtration who go to France, ſhall enjoy the ſame Advantages, they and their Families being rated agreeable to that Military Rank which correſponds to the Dignity of their Situations.

Anſwer.—Granted, as far as is conformable to the Uſage of the Britiſh Navy, which allows the ſame Ration to every Individual, of whatever Rank or Condition he may be.

Art. V.—The neceſſary Number of Carts and Boats to tranſport and embark the Perſonal Effects of the Generals, their Aides-de-Camp, the Ordonnateurs and Commiſſaries, the Chiefs of Corps, and Officers of Citizen Guyn; of the Officers of the Civil and Military Adminiſtrations, by Land and Sea, as well as the Papers of the Councils and Adminiſtration of Corps; thoſe of the Commiſſaries of War by Sea and Land; of the Paymaſters of the Diviſion, and the other Officers of the Civil and Military Adminiſtrations: theſe Effects and Papers are not to be ſubjected to any Search, under a Guarantee given by the French Generals that they do not contain any Public or Private Property.

Anſwer.—Granted.

Art. VI.—The Ships belonging to the Republic that are fit to go to Sea, ſhall depart at the ſame Time with the Diviſion, to go to a Port in France, after being furniſhed with the neceſſary Proviſions.

Anſwer.—Refuſed.

Art. VII. The ſick capable of being moved, ſhall be embarked with their Effects, and the Surgeons neceſſary to their being taken care of during the Voyage, at the ſame Time with the Diviſion, being furniſhed with Proviſions, Surgical Inſtruments, and Medicine Cheſts; thoſe who cannot be moved will be treated as their Situation requires.

The General in Chief leaving at Malta a Phyſician and Surgeon, who will take care of them, they ſhall be furniſhed with Quarters gratis if they ſhould be moved from the Hoſpital, and ſent to France as ſoon as their Situation admits of it, with every Thing that belongs to them, in the ſame Manner as the Garriſon. The Generals in Chief by Land and Sea, in evacuating Malta, entruſts them to the Generoſity and Humanity of the Engliſh Generals.

Anſwer.—Granted.

Art. VIII. No Individuals of whatever Nation, Inhabitants of the Iſland of Malta or otherwiſe, ſhall be in any Manner moleſted for their political Opinions, or for what they have done, or what has happened during the Time that Malta has been in the Hands of the French Government. This Article applies principally, and in its full Extent, to thoſe who have taken Arms, or held Employments either Civil, Adminiſtrative, or Military; they are not to be called to Account or proceeded againſt for having done ſo, nor for what they may have done in the Courſe of their Employment.

Anſwer.—This Article is not properly Part of a Military Capitulation; but the Inhabitants who wiſh to remain, or thoſe who ſhall be permitted to remain, may be aſſured that they ſhall be treated with Juſtice and Humanity, and ſhall enjoy the full Protection of the Laws.

Art. IX. The French in Malta, and the Malteſe of every Deſcription, who wiſh to go to France, ſhall have Permiſſion to do ſo with their Property. Thoſe who have moveable or immoveable Effects, that cannot be immediately ſold, and who intend going to France, ſhall have Six Months from the Date of this Capitulation to ſell their Property: Their Property ſhall be reſpected: They may act for themſelves if they remain, or by regular Attornies if they ſail with the Diviſion. When their Buſineſs ſhall be finiſhed, within the Time ſtipulated, they ſhall be furniſhed with Paſſports to go to France, carrying with them on board Ship the Moveables which they may chuſe to keep, as well as their Capitals in Specie, or Bills of Exchange, as may be moſt convenient.

Anſwer.—Granted; referring to the Anſwer of the laſt Article.

Art. X. As ſoon as the Capitulation ſhall be ſigned, the Engliſh General ſhall leave it in the Power of the General commanding the French Troops, whenever he chuſes that they ſhould depart, to ſend a Felucca with the neceſſary Crew, and an Officer charged to carry the Capitulations to the French Government, for which the neceſſary Safe-Conduct will be given.

Anſwer.—Granted.

Art. XI. The Articles of the Capitulation being ſigned, the Gate called Port de Bombes will be delivered to the Engliſh General; it will be occupied by an equal Guard of Engliſh and French, who will have it in Charge not to ſuffer any of the Soldiers of the Beſieging Army, or any of the Inhabitants whatever of the Iſland, to enter until the French Troops ſhall be embarked and out of Sight of the Harbour. By Degrees, as the Embarkation takes place, the Engliſh Troops will occupy the Poſts which will give them the Command of the Place: The Engliſh General muſt be ſenſible that this Precaution is indiſpenſable, that there may be no Subject of Diſpute, and that the Capitulation may be religiouſly obſerved.

Anſwer.—Granted; according to the Proviſions contained in the Anſwer to the Firſt Article: every Precaution will be taken that the armed Malteſe ſhall not approach the Poſts occupied by the French Troops.

Art. XII. All Alienations, or Sales of moveable or immoveable Property whatever, by the French Government while in Poſſeſſion of Malta, and all Tranſactions between Individuals, ſhall be held inviolable.

Anſwer.—Granted; as far as they ſhall be juſt and lawful.

Art. XIII. The Agents of the Powers, Allies to the French, who ſhall be in Valetta at the Reduction of the Place, ſhall not be moleſted in their Perſons or Property, but ſhall be guaranteed by this Capitulation.

Anſwer.—Granted.

Art. XIV. Ships of War, or Trading Veſſels coming from France under the National Flag, and preſenting themſelves at the Harbour to enter, ſhall not be conſidered as Prizes, nor ſhall their Crews be made Priſoners, for the firſt Twenty Days after the Date of the preſent Capitulation, but ſhall be ſent back to France with Convoy.

Anſwer.—Refuſed.

Art. XV. The General in Chief and the other Generals ſhall be embarked with their Aides-de-Camp and the Officers attached to them, as well as the Ordonnateurs and their Suits reſpectively, who ſhall not be ſeparated.

Anſwer.—Granted.

Art. XVI. The Priſoners taken during the Siege, including the Crews of the Ship Le Guillaume Tell, and the Frigate La Diane, ſhall be reſtored, and treated as the Garriſon; alſo the Crew of the Frigate La Juſtice, if ſhe ſhould be taken on her Voyage to any of the Ports of the Republic.

Anſwer.—The Crew of Le Guillaume Tell are already exchanged, and that of La Diane ſhall be tranſported to Minorca, to be exchanged forthwith.

Art. XVII. Every Perſon in the Service of the Republic ſhall be exempt from any Act of Repriſal whatever, or under whatever Pretext.

Anſwer.—Granted.

Art. XVIII. If any Doubt ſhall ariſe upon the Terms of this Capitulation, it ſhall be interpreted in Favour of the Garriſon.

Anſwer.—Granted, according to Juſtice.

SIR,

AS my Lord Keith is now at Mahon, and it may be ſome Time before he has an Opportunity of communicating with their Lordſhips, I have the Honor to encloſe a Copy of my Letter to his Lordſhip, giving an Account of the Surrender of the French Garriſon of La Valette, and one of the 29th Auguſt, acquainting him of the Capture of La Diane French Frigate,

I am, SIR, &c. &c.

GEORGE MARTIN.

Northumberland, off Malta, 5th September 1800.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that the French Garriſon of La Valette ſurrendered Yeſterday to the Allied Forces ſerving at Malta, and to encloſe a Copy of the Articles of Capitulation *.

* For the Articles of Capitulation ſee above.

I have not yet been able to obtain an Account of the Ordnance and Stores in the Garriſon; the Moment it can be procured I will tranſmit it to your Lordſhip.

I encloſe a Liſt of the Ships and Veſſels found in the Harbour.

I have the Honor, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE MARTIN.

Northumberland, off St. Paul's, 29th Auguſt 1800.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honour to acquaint you, that the Frigates La Juſtice and La Diane ſailed from the Harbour of La Valette on the Night of the 24th, and were immediately purſued by His Majeſty's Ships off that Port; and that the latter, after a Chace of ſome Hours, and a running Fight with the Succeſs, ſtruck to that Ship, the Genereux, and Northumberland. La Juſtice, I am ſorry to add, eſcaped under Cover of the Night, and has not ſince been heard of.

Admiralty-Office, October 11, 1800.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated Foudroyant, Gibraltar-Bay, September 15, 1800.

SIR,

MY Letter of the 11th Inſtant will have acquainted their Lordſhips of my having formed the Reſolution of attempting an Enterprize againſt Two Armed Veſſels, reported to be receiving Stores in the Roads of Barcelona for the Relief of Malta. I have now the Satisfaction of informing you, that this Service has been very judiciouſly arranged by Captain Louis of the Minotaur, and moſt gallantly and ſucceſsfully executed by Captain Hillyer of the Niger, and Lieutenant Schomberg of the Minotaur, in the Boats of theſe Ships, as will appear by the Report made to me thereon by Captain Louis, a Copy of which is herewith encloſed. I have no Doubt that their Lordſhips will juſtly appreciate the Merits of the Officers by whom this gallant and enterpriſing Service has been performed.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

MY LORD, Minotaur, Sept. 6, 1800.

KNowing how anxious and deſirous your Lordſhip was, as well as the Service to my Country, by cutting out or deſtroying the Two Corvettes, lying in Barcelona Road, mentioned in your Lordſhip's Orders to Captain Oliver; and, in order to check the Two Ships ſailing upon this intended ſecret Expedition, induced me to perſevere in the following Attempt:

On the Evening of the 3d Inſtant, after having delivered Captain Hillyer of the Niger his Orders to join your Lordſhip, a Breeze ſprung up from the Weſtward, with every Appearance of a cloſe Night. I again called him on board, with the Signal at the ſame Time to prepare Boats. Captain Hillyer and Lieutenant Schomberg volunteered the Service, aſſiſted by Lieutenants Warrand, Lowry, Lieutenant Healy of the Niger, Mr. Reid, Maſter, and Lieutenant Jewell of the Marines. The Boats left the Minotaur about Eight o'Clock in the Evening. The Firing began from all Quarters near Nine: about Ten o'Clock I had the pleaſing Satisfaction to ſee Two Ships dropping out of the Road under a heavy Fire from the Ships, Four ſtrong Batteries, Ten Gun-Boats, Two Schooners, with Two Forty-two Pounders each—the Fort of Mount Joui the ſame Time throwing Shells.—The Minotaur and Niger were well placed in good Seaſon to cover the Party. The Service was performed throughout with an enterpriſing Spirit, good Conduct, and in a gallant Stile. The Loſs, which I ſhall inform your Lordſhip, of Killed and Wounded fell principally upon Two Boats, not great, when compared to the Situation the Number of Boats and ſo many Men were placed in for a conſiderable Time. The Ships about Eleven o'Clock were perfectly clear from the Fire of the Enemy's Batteries and Gun-Boats, the Men of War checking the Movements of the latter: the Ships captured, named Conception alias Eſmiralda, and La Paz, about Four Hundred Tons, each mounting Twenty-two Braſs Guns, Twelve and Nine-Pounders, laden with Proviſions and Stores, &c. &c. &c. ſuppoſed for Batavia, and on Dutch Account: they were to have taken Three Hundred Troops of the Regiment of Batavian Swiſs on board from the Iſland of Majorca. I found ſeveral Dutch Officers on board the Eſmiralda. The Officers and ſeveral of the Men of La Paz, during the Action, quitted her in Boats. La Paz is a very fine Ship, quite new, never at Sea before, ſails remarkably well, and I make no Doubt your Lordſhip will find her in all Reſpects calculated for His Majeſty's Service; the Eſmiralda is alſo a very fine Ship. I beg Leave ſtrongly to recommend to your Lordſhip's Notice Captain Hillyer and Lieutenant Schomberg; their Services upon this Occaſion deſerve the firſt Attention and higheſt Praiſe; at the ſame Time I cannot paſs without Notice the general good Conduct of every Officer and Man ſerving under my Command.

I herewith ſend the Liſt of Killed and Wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

THOMAS LOUIS.

Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.
